ON OUR TRAVELS

INTRODUCING...

Paradisus Gran Canaria

New to Luxury Worldwide Collection, 5 star Paradisus Gran Canaria has been an instant hit with our clients in 2023. All-inclusive, it has been recently renovated and offers fantastic facilities as well as beautiful views over the Atlantic Ocean. In July this year our Sales Manager Kris Tassel, took a trip over to the Canaries to see it for himself (and us!).

GOOD TO KNOW

- The hotel is an experience all-inclusive which means you will get an excursion included in your stay.
- You are literally on the beach and just 500m from San Agustin resort centre.
- There are 5 golf courses within 35 km radius.
- Approximate transfer time from the airport is 30 minutes.

STAY

There is a wide range of accommodation options here, from Premium Rooms to Two Bedroom Family Suites, with the option to stay at 'The Reserve', the hotel's adults-only area, with fabulous sea view rooms! All rooms are beautifully decorated with regional art and handcrafted materials, well equipped and stocked with lots of handy amenities.

'Nikte' is their upgraded service for families craving luxury and comfort. The Nikte experience comes with a superior room with luxury amenities and personalised assistance.

PLAY

The hotel's adults-only area, 'The Reserve', offers an upgraded guest experience with a personalised concierge service and an exclusive pool with pool service.

Families are very well looked after too, with a Kids' Zone programme (from 5-12 years old) and tech-forward events for teens, not to mention the pool and Splash Park and their 'Kisdom' programme.

There are excellent facilities on offer from a beautiful Spa to extras like bike rental and a well-equipped gym. When staying at least four nights, you can take advantage of the hotel's frequent local attraction visits and local experience days, as part of their destination-inclusive concept.

WINE & DINE

I was blown away by the wide range of gastronomic experiences here, with 7 restaurants and 3 different bars on offer. From the 24/7 Lobby Bar (24/7 cocktails!) Ginger, to the Signature Restaurant Peseta, you can also find Cevichería, a Trattoria and so much more!

KRIS'S EXPERT REVIEW

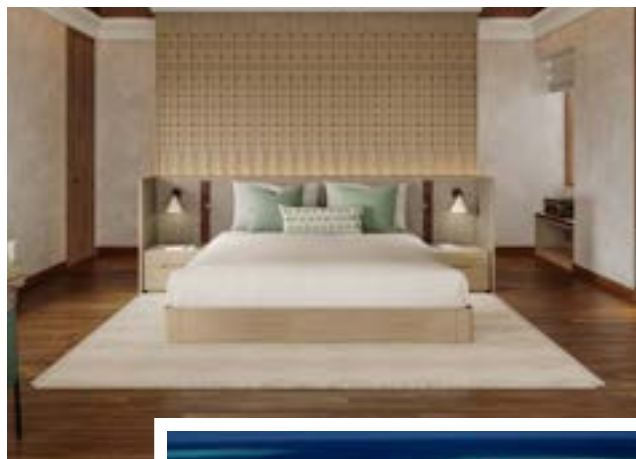

This really is a hotel that has something for everyone. It's a family-friendly resort, but also offers an exclusive adults-only concept for couples looking for a romantic beach escape, and the best thing of all is their unique destination inclusive all-inclusive concept, offering cultural experiences and local activities for guests! It ticks every box!

I would 100% recommend couples and adult only groups to upgrade to The Reserve.

STAY AT PARADISUS GRAN CANARIA

From £1,599 per person

Huvafen Fushi

Paradise Reinvented

Your favourite Maldives Island just got even better...

Perched in the heart of the North Malé Atoll, Huvaafen Fushi has long been a paradise retreat. Now, after a remarkable transformation, it promises to whisk guests away into an even deeper realm of luxury, elevating your experience to new heights. Drawing inspiration from its breathtaking environment, the island resort introduces a harmonious blend of minimalist design and modern comforts, while perfectly capturing the essence of Maldivian charm.

For starters, there are the room transformations, which are nothing short of swanky. From expansive swimming pools to spacious living areas and additional bedrooms, these revamped spaces raise the luxury bar even higher.

Remember those pristine Beach Bungalows with a pool, where the sun's embrace and the gentle ocean breeze created perfect memories? Well, they've transformed into the even more opulent Deluxe Beach Bungalows with Pools. And it's not just a title upgrade, either. Every single one of these bungalows now boasts a larger swimming pool complemented by a generously extended deck, beckoning guests to indulge in that all-important R&R.

In another delightful twist, The Cube has transformed into a Two-Bedroom Beach House. With its own private pool, it promises guests an enhanced experience that offers twice the comfort and twice the view. More space, you ask? The unveiling of Two-Bedroom Ocean Pavilions awaits. Plus, the existing Two-Bedroom Beach Pavilion with Pool is also expanding into a grandiose Three-Bedroom Beach Pavilion with Pool.

And there's a cherry on top: The Lagoon Bungalows. Last, but not least, these gems are ready to set the tone for your stay, becoming the resort's signature introductory lead-in room. They'll welcome guests with the fresh, rejuvenated aesthetic that's now emblematic of the whole island.

So, as you think of Huvaafen Fushi now, imagine your treasured haven but sprinkled with delightful enhancements and punctuated with surprises. This renovated jewel offers not just a reason but a call to return — though, let's be honest, the charm of the Maldives hardly requires persuasion.

Eager for a first glimpse? Join us at the grand re-opening. We can't wait to welcome you back!

RAS AL KHAIMAH

Highlighted in Time Magazine's World's Greatest Places of 2022 and featured in CNN Travel's best destinations to visit in 2023, UAE jewel Ras Al Khaimah invites travellers to immerse themselves in the Emirate's beating heart.

Comprising diverse landscapes where the pulse of adventure resonates across captivating blonde beaches, shelving deserts, azure waters and striking mountain terrains, this spectacular region offers an unparalleled travel experience for all ages.

The Nature Emirate in the UAE, Ras Al Khaimah boasts more than 7,000 years of rich history, culture and tradition - plus a host of activities sure to thrill any adventurer. Admire a diverse tapestry of unspoiled beaches, verdant mangroves, and terracotta dunes, complemented by flourishing oases and a breathtaking backdrop of the Hajar mountains.

Delve into the Emirate's fascinating past and you'll discover a deep-rooted history, peppered with UNESCO - listed sites such as Julfar - an important trading place and the main centre for pearl fishery in the lower Gulf - and Al Jazeera Al Hamra - a town to the south of Ras Al Khaimah known for its collection of abandoned houses. The National Museum and the unique Suwaidi Pearls are also worth a glimpse for any history buffs.

Feeling adventurous? Jebel Jais is a total haven for adrenaline junkies. Crowned as the UAE's highest mountain, the Jais Adventure Park is a hot spot for action and adventure lovers, complete with heart-racing activities including the world's longest zipline, Jais Flight, and the region's longest toboggan ride, Jais Sledder!

In fact, Ras Al Khaimah doesn't disappoint those with a penchant for most sports. While global sporting events such as the Ras Al Khaimah Half Marathon and the UAE Tour are popular pastimes for enthusiasts, golf aficionados will already be aware of the Emirate's passion for international golf championships, such as the DP World Tour held at the esteemed Al Hamra Golf Club. For amateurs and seasoned swingers alike, the Tower Links Golf Club is also popular haunts, should you wish to hit the green during your stay in this desert city.

Speaking of which, you can't come all this way and not experience the Al Wadi Nature Reserve. Nestled amid the desert sands, this serene oasis plays host to a protected 1,235-acre area within Wadi Khadeja in Ras Al Khaimah - and it's packed with nature and family-friendly activities and experiences. From private archery lessons to exciting camel treks, plus dining underneath the stars - it's a must on your holiday itinerary.

Similarly, those eager to immerse themselves in the wilderness should check out the world's first Bear Grylls branded Explorers Camp. Run by a team of Bear's highly trained instructors, those brave enough can take on one of the programme's intense courses, where you'll confront rugged terrains, learn extreme survival skills and learn how to cope with harsh environments.

If you consider yourself less adventurous and more, well, laid-back, don't fear, the azure coastline presents a string of world-class resorts, including names like Waldorf Astoria, Ritz-Carlton, Hampton Resort by Hilton, and InterContinental Mina Al Arab - perfect for those seeking a touch of opulence during their stay. We're thinking delectable dinners overlooking the water and sumptuous spa days, please...

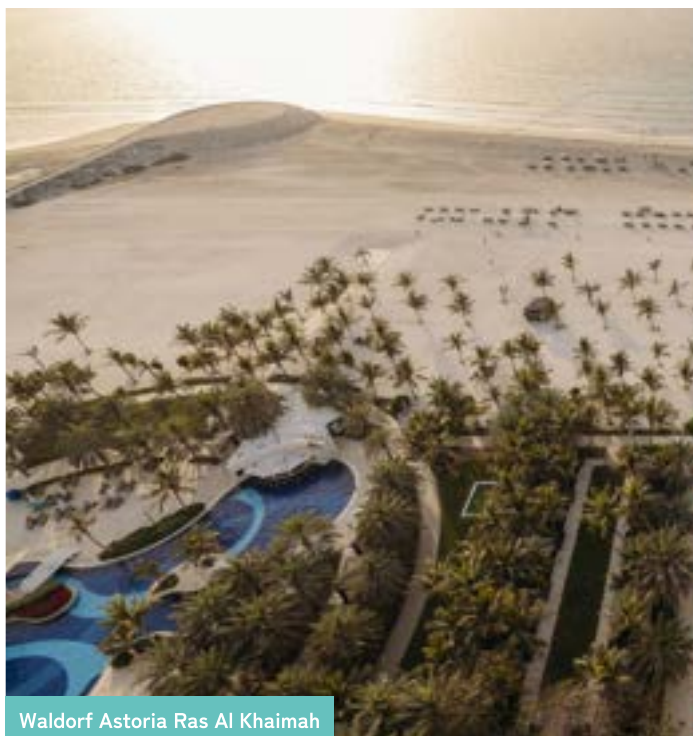

So, it's no surprise that Ras Al Khaimah has become one of the most sought-after destinations in the Middle East. Its popularity is also complemented by the fact that it's easily accessible from various key European hubs - plus, it's just a 45-minute drive from Dubai International Airport. Perfect if you fancy a multi-centre trip?

The Insider Antigua

We've travelled the length and breadth of Caribbean and spent years honing our knowledge of this superb archipelago to enable us to put together exactly the right holiday for you and we keep our knowledge as up to date as possible. In July this year our Head of Sales and Caribbean specialist, Joanne Chandler, took a trip to Antigua to see new openings and some old favourites.

Read on for some expert insights into Antigua and a few personal tips from Jo...

Galley Bay Resort & Spa

My first stop on the trip was beach front Galley Bay, a small boutique resort for adults/couples and the atmosphere here is peaceful and quiet.

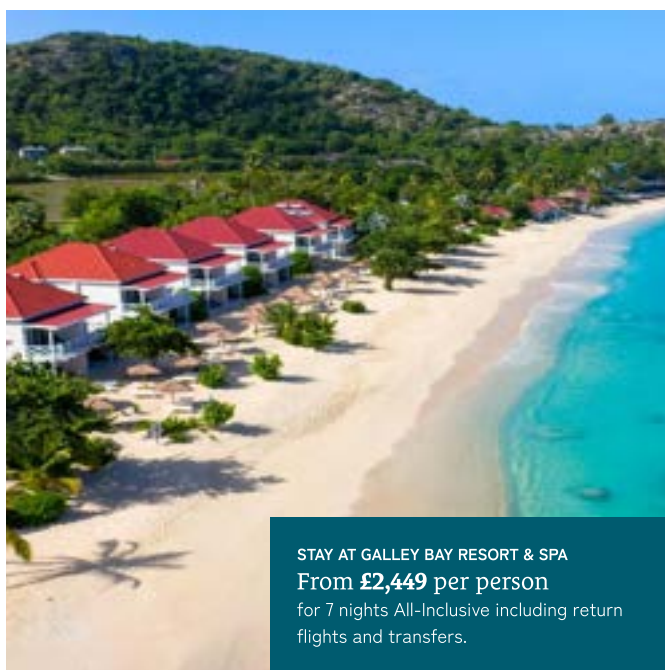

This is an all-inclusive resort, and that works really well as the beauty of GALLEY BAY is that it is secluded, going out and about means you need to take a taxi (very easily done) so knowing you have all meals and drinks included is perfect. Food here is fresh and tasty! I loved the local seafood, but there is a great choice for everyone, with 3 restaurants in total (all beachfront)

GALLEY BAY

Perfect for: Adults and Couples

I loved: The 'toes in the water' beach front setting

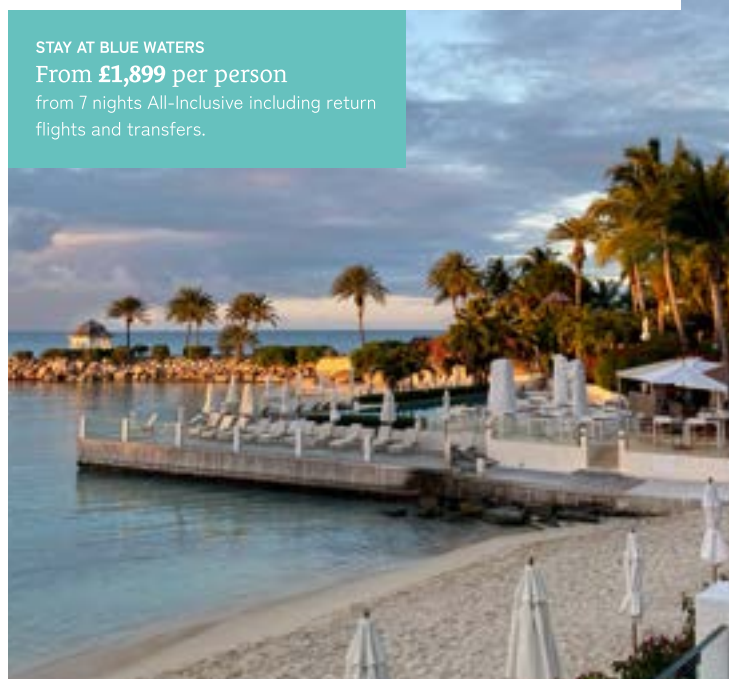

I recommend: For a honeymoon or a couples recharge

STAY AT GALLEY BAY RESORT & SPA
From £2,449 per person
for 7 nights All-Inclusive including return
flights and transfers.

STAY AT BLUE WATERS

From £1,899 per person
from 7 nights All-Inclusive including return
flights and transfers.

Blue Waters

Two nights later, moved onto Blue Waters, which sits in the north of Antigua.

This is also an all-inclusive resort and an ideal family destination. With its own secluded cove, it has everything you could want ... freshwater pools, 17 acres of lush tropical gardens and a British-colonial style resort designed for luxurious comfort and relaxation.

The great thing about BLUE WATERS is that it has accommodation to suit every budget and taste. The resort rooms and suites all have patios or balconies and have a lot of modern touches.

BLUE WATERS

Perfect for: Families and Activity Seekers

I loved: The huge choice of all-inclusive options

I recommend: Upgrade to the Cove Suites or one of the Villas for a larger group holiday

Jumby Bay Island

The final two nights of my Antigua adventure took me to the world renowned Jumby Bay Island. All I can say is 'wow'! I was blown away by this resort.

Accessible only by boat (a very lovely Catamaran), JUMBY BAY is a private island two miles off the coast of Antigua and this 300 acre island is heaven! Space and luxury are the key offerings, it's a truly unique and wonderful place with just 28 hotel suites, 14 villas and 20 Estate Homes (privately owned but can be used for holiday stays) dotted around its palm fringed shores.

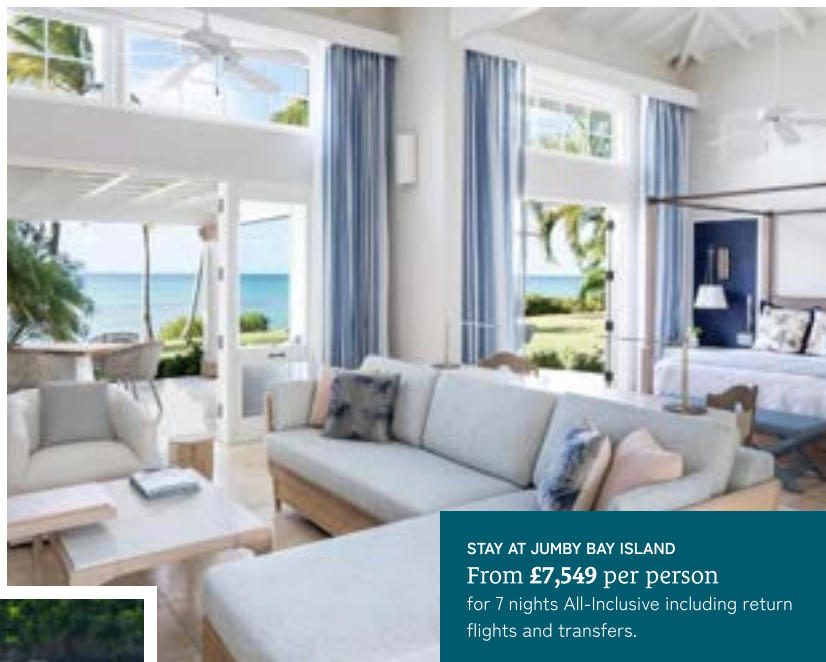

All-Inclusive, it has several dining options as well as in room/suite dining for guests. The all-inclusive experience really means everything ... with free-flowing Taittinger champagne, yacht trips and all-day dining part of a stay.

JUMBY BAY

Perfect for: Families, groups & couples – Jumby has space & something for everyone

I loved: Everything! The friendliness and service of team were standout

I recommend: Making use of your complimentary bicycle to explore (and work off the amazing food!)

STAY AT JUMBY BAY ISLAND

From £7,549 per person

for 7 nights All-Inclusive including return flights and transfers.

Carlisle Bay, Antigua

During my visit I also spent some time looking at the other hotels we feature.

CARLISLE BAY is located on the south coast of Antigua and has one of the most beautiful beaches on the island. It has 87 junior or 3-bedded suites, each of which is comfortable and spacious with fantastic ocean views.

Perfect for: Families

HAMMOCK COVE is a new addition to Antigua since I last visited and it's Antigua's latest Adult Only, All Inclusive Resort. Very modern and contemporary... it's a brilliant new property with lovely free standing private villas with balconies and plunge pools.

Perfect for: Adult Only spa and activity seekers

CURTAIN BLUFF is an old favourite in Antigua, and I've been booking guests here for many years. It has obviously changed over the 50 years it's been open (with several refurbishments the most recent 2 years ago) and continues to appeal to many of my clients looking for world class traditional Caribbean hospitality, luxury accommodation and world class cuisine.

Perfect for: Ideal for tennis and sailing fans.

OUT AND ABOUT ELEGANT GOLF RESORTS On The Road

The August Bank Holiday weekend this year saw the Elegant Golf Resorts Team head north of the border and up to Balmedie in Aberdeenshire, Scotland where the legendary Trump International Golf Links Scotland was hosting The Legends Staysure PGA Seniors Championship.

As proud sponsors of The Legends Tour we hosted a stand in the Championship Village at the event, and spent four great days catching up with some of our many Elegant Golf Resorts guests as well as meeting new ones. It was an absolute pleasure to chat all things golf to some many avid fans as well as talking holidays – past and upcoming plans. Two of our favourite topics!

Well organised and very enjoyable, the Tournament was a huge success and the great weather helped too. Not forgetting the venue, since opening for play in 2012 Trump International Golf Links has earned a reputation as one of the very best courses in the country and it made for some spectacular golf!

There were many highlights of the four days but our key stand out moments include listening to José María Olazábal & Paul Lawrie doing a storytelling Q&A to the patrons in the middle of the Championship Village, watching our CEO Edward Rom and Rudimental's Leon Locksmith playing together on Day One and our amazing view point of the tee on the second hole. We also had the privilege of sharing the Legends Coach with all the celebs and sports stars to the venue from our hotel!

Our congratulations to Peter Baker who won the professional tournament and Brian McFadden who won as the Celebrity Amateur and also our own CEO, Edward Rom, who's team won the Alliance Team Match.

Huge thanks to everyone who popped by to see us and chat, we look forward to seeing you again soon!
